P R E F A C E .

The present volume is a further instalment of a Calendar of certain documents selected from the class formerly known as Escheats, or Inquisitions post mortem. It deals with the period from the 21st to the 25th year of Edward III. The shortness of the period covered is accounted for by the great mortality due to the visitation of the Black Death in the 23rd year (1349). This not only caused a great increase in the number of deaths of tenants in chief during its actual prevalence, but by killing mesne lords, whose heirs were minors, put their tenants temporarily into the position of tenants in chief, so that the number of escheats falling to the crown was swelled for years after by an unusual number of deaths of tenants of minors in the king's wardship.

Moreover, the confusion in the administration caused by the pestilence resulted in a large number of deaths passing unnoticed for years. In such a case a writ without the clauses Quia diem clausit extremum and omnes terras capiatis in manum nostram, &c. was issued, simply directing the escheator to enquire as to the date of death, estate, and heir of the deceased. Sometimes the time that elapsed between the death and the issue of the writ amounted to ten years, or more, and to suit such cases a clause was added requiring information as to who had had possession of the estate of the deceased since his death and received the issues. In this volume and in future volumes of the Calendar, every writ not otherwise described is to be understood to be a writ of Diem clausit extremum in the usual form.

The text of this volume has been prepared by Mr. E. G. Atkinson, an Assistant Record Keeper, with some assistance from Mr. G. J. Morris, M.A., until lately an Assistant Record Keeper, and Mr. A. E. Stamp, M.A., of this Office. The index has been prepared by Mr. J. J. O'Reilly, M.A., of this Office.

He had no other lands &c. in the county on the day he died, so far as the jury can ascertain; for he lately held a messuage with a garden, 60*a.* land, 4*a.* meadow, 20*a.* pasture, 4*a.* wood in Leye, of the abbot of Shirebourne in fee simple, but he enfeoffed thereof five days before his death Adam de Wotton, Thomas de Boneville and Walter de Godmanston and their heirs, and so they entered thereupon.

He died on Saturday after St. Matthias last. His daughters, Isabel aged 30 years, and Elizabeth aged 26 years, and John son of Margery his daughter late the wife of Hugh Tirel, aged 10 years, are his heirs. John is in the king's wardship.

Writ of plenius certiorari, because the king now understands that the feoffment of the abovesaid messuage, lands &c. in Leye was done in fraud to take away from him the custody of the said lands &c.; which ought to pertain to the king by reason of the minority of John, son of Hugh Tirel, kinsman and one of the heirs of the said John Wake, a minor in the king's wardship; also that the said Adam, Thomas and Walter, without seisin delivered to them by the said John Wake at the time of his death, entered upon the said lands &c. by their own authority and still hold them, receiving the profits thereof and disposing of them at will to the manifest prejudice of the king and danger of disherison of the said heir, 12 May, 22 Edward III.

Leye. The said feoffment was made in fraud of the king as the writ supposes, for the deceased died on Saturday, 1 March last, on which day the feoffment was made, and on the Monday following the said Adam, Thomas and Walter entered upon the said lands &c. without seisin delivered to them by the said John Wake, whilst he lived, but they have received no profits therefrom. Richard Michel has received them from the death of the said deceased until now to his own use and still retains them, and entered upon the said tenements ; but how much of the issues the said Richard has received is unknown to the jury. The said tenements are held of the abbot of Shyrbourne as of his temporalities of Shyrbourne by service of 2s. yearly.

Transcript of mandate of the king to Nicholas de Poyntz, Andrew de Turbervill, John de Smedemor and Ralph de Baggeley, because the king is given to understand that certain persons have lately entered upon the manor of Compton Martyn, co. Somerset, and upon certain lands &c. in Hulle, co. Dorset, late of John Wake, knight, deceased, who held of the king in chief, which by reason of his death and the minority of John, son and heir of Hugh Tyrel, deceased, kinsman and one of the heirs of the said John Wake, a minor in the king's wardship, were taken by the escheator into the king's hand, and that they now occupy with armed force the [said] manor, lands &c. levying and receiving to their own use the profits issuing therefrom and committing waste and destruction in the parks, woods and gardens pertaining thereto, to the grave injury and dishonour of the king and manifest disherison of the said heir, the king has assigned them to resume into his hand the said manor, lands &c. and the issues received therefrom from the death of the said John Wake, and to cause the same to be delivered to John de Grey of Rutthyn, to whom the king has committed the custody thereof until the lawful age of the said heir, and to take and arrest all those whom they shall find so occupying the said manor, lands &c. with armed force, and to guard them safely until further order ; and also to inquire into the destruction committed and the issues received &c. and to certify in the chancery the names of those arrested ; 22 May, 22 Edward III.

By virtue whereof the commissioners ordered the sheriff to have 24 jurors of the neighbourhood of Hulle before them at Neuton Castell on Saturday before St. Barnabas, 22 Edward III ; on which day an inquisition was taken there. The jurors say that William le Brun, knight, William Rabon, William Pillyng and Richard Dethz, with others unknown, with armed force on Saturday before St. Dunstan in the year aforesaid entered upon the king's seisin in certain lands &c. in Hulle, co. Dorset, late of the said John Wake, and took 19 beasts (averia) there, to the value of 20*l.*, and drove them as far as Randalfston, co. Dorset, against the king's peace and there William le Brun, knight, sold a certain tenement that was in the king's hand to William Rabon, to the prejudice of the king and disherison of the abovesaid John son of Hugh Tyrel, and for entry upon the said tenement the said William took from William Rabon 13s. 4d.

The commissioners also went to the manor of Compton Martyn, co. Somerset, and caused it to be resumed into the king's hands. Upon the king's seisin there the servants of Sir James Daudeley viz. Thomas Panes and others have entered with force and arms, and they levy the profits thereof to their own use, and they broke the locks of certain houses there and took and carried away the goods and chattels found therein, to the value of 30l., and committed waste and destruction in the parks, woods and gardens, to the value of 40l. The commissioners ordered the sheriff to have 24 jurors of the neighbourhood of Compton Martyn before them at Welles on Monday the feast of St. Thomas the Martyr, 22 Edward III, on which day the jurors altogether refuse[d] to tell the truth concerning those who had trespassed and as to the issues &c.; wherefore a day was given to the said jury to be before the commissioners at Creukerne on Thursday the eve of St. James next following, to render their verdict and the sheriff was ordered to have 24 freemen of Est-peret and as many of Westperet before them; on which day none of them came, and they also certify that no one has dared in the parts of Somerset [to testify] touching the said business of the king through fear of [danger to] life and limb from Sir James de Audeleye and his servants.

DORSET. Ing. before the aforesaid commissioners at Nyweton Castel, Saturday before St. Barnabas, 22 Edward III.

Hulle. The jurors say that on Saturday before St. Dunstan, 22 Edward III, William le Brun, knight, William Rabon, William Pyllyng and Richard Dyth with others unknown, entered with armed force upon the king's seisin in certain lands &c. in Hulle, co. Dorset, late of the said John Wake, and took there 19 beasts, to the value of 20l., and drove them to Randalfstone, and the said William le Brun sold to William Rabon a certain tenement there that was in the king's hand and took from him for entry thereon one mark. Who made waste or took any profit there is not known to the jury.

Writ of plenius certiorari, because the king understands that the 40a. meadow and 80a. pasture in Hulle, co. Dorset, mentioned in a previous inquisition are held of him in chief and not of the lord of Mapoudre. 10 December, 23 Edward III.

DORSET. Ing. taken at 3 May, 24 Edward III.

Hulle. The said meadow and pasture are held of William le Brun, knight, by service of an eighth part of a knight's fee and by rendering to him yearly at his manor of Randolfestone 5s. 10d. and 140 geese.

Transcript of a fine, made and recorded as above, between the said John Wake, plaintiff, and the aforesaid deforciant, touching a third part of the manor of Compton Martyn and the advowson of the church.

Transcript of a fine, made and recorded as above, between the said John Wake, plaintiff, and the abovesaid deforciant, touching the manors of Caundel, Hulle and Stoke Wake; whereby the remainder of the manor of Caundel is to the right heirs of the said John Wake, and that of the manors of Hulle and Stoke Wake is to John Wake, son of Anastasia de Pourton, and the heirs of his body and to the right heirs of the said John Wake, knight.

HEREFORD AND THE MARCH OF WALES. Inq. taken at Ros by the escheator in the presence of Robert de Hadham, escheator of the king's chamber, on Wednesday after St. Lucy, 25 Edward III.

The earl held the castle and lordship of Bergeveny and other manors of the king in chief, of the crown, by barony and by his charter granted to William de Hastynges, knight, and his heirs the following manors with the knights' fees and advowsons, which are parcel of the said lordship, viz. the manors of Penros, Tregayr, Henthles, Bryngwyn, Coitmorgan, Lannevor, Eboth Vaur, Eboth Vaughan, Tregothel, Lanwetheryn and Werneurthrek, whereof said William died seised without heir of his body; and he was a bastard. The said William died on 9 March, 23 Edward III, from which day John Haklut and Agnes his wife have occupied the said manors and received the issues &c.

The said manors at the time of the gift aforesaid were worth 120*l.* yearly, but what they are worth now the jurors know not on account of the pestilence.

Writ of privy seal to the same escheator, reciting the above inquisition which Robert de Hadham has shown to the king, and commanding him to bring the said inquisition into the king's chamber without delay; 26 December, 25 Edward III. (French.)

Mandate from the king to the bishop of Worcester, chancellor, sending him an inquisition taken by the escheator of co. Hereford &c. and commanding him to have it duly executed, as if it had been returned into the chancery. Given under the seal of the 'Griffon,' 20 February, 26 Edward III. (French.)

Writ to the escheator in co. Hereford &c. Whereas it was found by an inquisition that Lawrence de Hastynges, late earl of Pembroke, was seised of the castle, lordship and borough of Bergeveny and of the manors of Penros, Tresgair, Henthles, Bryngwyn, Coithmorgan, Lannovor, Tresgoythel, Lanwytheryn and Wernerith and of a rent of 8½ marks in Ebwithvaur and Ebwithvaghan, and of other lands &c. in England and Wales, the king caused to be assigned to Agnes, late the wife of the said earl, the aforesaid castle, lordship [and] borough of Bergeveny, the manor of Penros and the rent of Ebwithvaur and Ebwithvaghan in dower, and the said manors of Henthles and Wernerith, in compensation of two parts of 10*l.* yearly, which the prior and monks of Bergeveny receive from the pleas and perquisites of court belonging to the said castle, lordship and borough by a certain ancient alms granted to them by the ancestors of the said earl, of which 10*l.* mention was not made in the extent of the said castle &c. returned into chancery after the said earl's death; and afterwards, because the said manors of Penros, Henthles and Wernerith and the said rent of Ebwithvaur and Ebwithvaghan, by the name of the manors of Ebwithvaur and Ebwithvaghan, by reason of another inquisition taken by the said escheator ex officio [Wednesday after St. Lucy, 25 Edward III, see above] were taken into the king's hand as an escheat, the king commanded that the said manors of Penros, Henthles and Wernerith and the said rent in Ebwithvaur and Ebwithvaghan should be restored to John Hakelut, who married the aforesaid Agnes, and to the said Agnes to hold in dower and also the value of the two parts of the aforesaid 10*l.*, as appears by inspection of the rolls of the chancery; because it has been testified before the king that the manors &c. so assigned to the said Agnes exceed in value the other manors of Tresgair, Bryngwyn, Coithmorgan, Lannovor, Tresgoythel and Lanwytheryn, which remain in the king's hand over and above the dower and compensation aforesaid, and so it appears that the king has been deceived in the said assignment &c.; the escheator is commanded to inquire into the value of the manors &c. assigned in dower and compensation, except the castle, lordship and borough of Bergeveny, and of all the other manors &c. remaining in the king's hand, delaying meanwhile the execution of the other mandate of the king, if not already executed, touching the restoration of the manors &c. assigned to the said John and Agnes as above, 13 March, 26 Edward III. Halsham. The said John held the manor of the king in chief, as of the honour of Aumale, which is in the king's hand, by service of a moiety of a knight's fee, and on Thursday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross last; he enfeoffed William de Holm, John Culiour, vicar of the church of Aldburgh, and William Vescy, chaplain, of the said manor, except a certain chamber between 'le Licorescegarth' and the herbarium within the hall of the said manor, to hold to them and their heirs: by virtue of which feoffment the said William, John, and William were seised of the said manor, except the chamber aforesaid, and except 10s. 1d. rent, and a rent of 1*lb.* cummin from divers free tenants in the said manor, who did not attorn to the said feoffees; and afterwards on the same day John le Conestable died. Commission of plenius certiorari to Thomas Ughtred, Robert de Hilton and Henry de Greystok, because the king has been given to understand that John la Conestable, who died on Thursday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross last about the hour of vespers, alienated to the abovesaid William, John and William, his manor of Halsham on the same day between the ninth hour and the said hour of vespers, whilst he was labouring in extremis, by procurement of certain men of those parts, in fraud, to take away from the king the custody of the said manor after the said John's death, 16 February, 24 Edward III.

The said William, John, and William were seized, before the said John's death, of the said manor, except the aforesaid chamber, and the attornment and services of the free tenants there, but received no issues or profits thereof ; and the said alienation was not made by any one's procurement. The said John Conestable, when he made this alienation was not sound and unimpaired (sanus et incolumis), made it in fear of imminent death that the feoffees might, after his death, enfeof Aubrey (Abbredam) his wife for her life, with reversion to his right heirs. Immediately after his death, the said William, John, and William did so enfeof the said Aubrey (Albredam) with remainder to the said right heirs. Afterwards John Sturmy, now husband of the said Aubrey, enfeofed of the said manor Henry fitz Henri, knight, and John Coursy, to hold for the said Aubrey's life, and on Thursday, 11 March last, whilst the said Henry and John Coursy so occupied the said manor, Peter de Grymesby, the escheator in Holderness, delivered, in pursuance of the king's writ, two parts of the said manor to Thomas Ughtred, knight, to whom the king had committed the custody of the said John le Conestable's lands until the lawful age of his heir. By virtue of which commission and livery, the said Thomas holds two parts of the said manor, and the said escheator has the custody of the third part to the king's use. Before his death, the said William, John and William had seisin in the manor, except a certain chamber in which the said John died, and the attornment, rents and services of the free tenants, whereof they were not seized on account of the shortness of time between the hour of the feoffment and the hour of the death ; and they received no issues or profits either before or after the death except that the said William de Holm had a mare and John Coillour a mare and a foal in the common of pasture of the said manor during the life of the said John le Conestable, by his licence, which used the said common of pasture a fortnight after the said John's death. All the said John's goods and chattels in the manor at the time of the said feoffment and seisin and for some time after his death, remained there.

YORK. Memorandum that John Coillour of Halsham, vicar of the church of Aldeburgh, and William Vesey, chaplain, whom John le Conestable, of Halsham, enfeoffed of the manor of Halsham, which the king seized into his hand by reason of the minority of John, son and heir of the said John Conestable, have put in their place William de Houeden and John Courcy, to sue against the king for the removal of the king's hand. Undated.

YORK. Memorandum that Henry son of Henry, who, together with John Courcy, was seized of the manor of Halsham, which manor the king seized into his hand by reason of the minority of John, son and heir of John le Conestable of Halsham, of which manor the said John le Conestable, the elder, enfeoffed in his lifetime John Coilliour, William Vesey, and William de Holme, puts in his place William de Houeden and John Courcy, to sue against the king, for the removal of the king's hand. Undated.

Indenture made between the king of the one part and Thomas Ughtred, knight, of the other part, witnessing that whereas the king has committed to the said Thomas the custody of the lands, &c. late of John le Conestable of Halsham in the parts of Holderneshe, until the lawful age of John, the son and heir, rendering 100 marks yearly into the king's chamber; and also has granted to him the marriage of the said heir, rendering into the said chamber 400 marks, to wit, 100 marks each Easter and Michaelmas until fully paid, the said Thomas binds himself, to pay 200 marks for each 100 marks unpaid within fifteen days after the said terms; 24 November, 23 Edward III. French.

Copy of grant to the aforesaid Thomas Ughtred of the custody of the above lands, &c., as above; 22 November, 23 Edward III. By writ of secret seal.

Copy of grant to the said Thomas Ughtred of the custody of a third part of the manor of Halsham, rendering yearly to the king 20 marks; 3 March, 25 Edward III. By letter of the Griffoun.

Petition of Thomas Ughtred to the Council. As Henry de Greystok has granted to John Sturmy and Aubrey his wife, a third part of the manor of Halsham, parcel of the aforesaid tenements, by reason whereof the petitioner has been hindered from taking the said third part granted to him by the king at a rent of 20 marks yearly, which 20 marks and the above 100 marks he has already paid for three years, he craves allowance for these payments. French. Undated.

Endorsed: Let this petition be remitted to the Chancery, and let the steward of the king's chamber be called thereupon, and what has been done in this business be viewed and shown, and returned into the Chancery; let right be done therein, as well for the king as for the said Thomas.

Petition of Henry son of Henry, of Ravensworth, and John Courcy to the king and council. John le Conestable of Halsham was seized of the manor of Halsham, and held it of the king in chief, as of the honour of Aumale, which manor, except one chamber, the said John gave to John Couliour, vicar of the church of Aldeburgh, and William Vescey, chaplains, and William de Holme : and died the same day, at the time of the pestilence in those parts : the said John, William, and William afterwards gave the said manor, with the above exceptions, to Aubrey, late the wife of the said John le Conestable, for her life, and afterwards to the right heirs of the said John ; which Aubrey afterwards took to husband (a baroun) one John Stourmy.

After an inquisition taken upon a writ of diem clausit extremum, Sir Thomas Ughtrid, to whom the king had committed the wardship &c., came and stated in the Chancery that the said John died seised of the entire manor of Halsham, and had a writ to the escheator ad melius inquirendum (de meultz enquire), whereupon it was found that the said John enfeofed the aforesaid John, William and William of the said manor, who were to enfeof the said Aubrey in form aforesaid. (Inquisition of 21 November, 23 Edward III.) Afterwards John Sturmy gave the manor to the petitioners, whereupon the said Thomas prayed for a commission ad melius inquirendum (de meltz enquer), and had the same made to himself and Sir Henry Graystok and Sir Robert de Hilton, who made two inquisitions and found that the said John le Conestable enfeofed the said John, William and William, &c., as above. (Two inquisitions of 1 April, 24 Edward III.) In the meantime the said Sir Thomas had a writ from the Chancery to the escheator to deliver to him all the lands &c. of the said John &c. ; by virtue whereof the escheator delivered to him two parts of the whole manor, and retained the third part in the king's hand, thereby depriving the said Henry son of Henry and John Courcy of the entire manor, whereof they pray restitution, except as above excepted, and for removal of the king's hand, for there is nothing found in the inquisitions, by which the manor ought to remain in the king's hand. French. Undated.

Endorsed : Referring the matter to the Chancery where issue has already been joined.

Endorsed :—"Enrolled in Michaelmas term, 25 Edward III : roll 17."

Certificate by the treasurer and barons. On examination of the rolls and memoranda of the Exchequer it was found that John de Huntercombe, son and heir of Thomas de Huntercombe, is charged with 18*l.* 15*s.* for his relief of the lands &c. held by Thomas his father of the king in chief, for which he did homage on 7 April, 1 Edward III, viz. for 3½ knights' fees in the manor of Burnham, co. The said tenements sometime belonged to Hugh de Haudeng, after whose death they descended by inheritance to Alice, his daughter and heir, who married an ancestor of the said John, as the latter acknowledged before the barons of the Exchequer in Easter term, 6 Edward III.

It was also found in the Book of Fees in the Exchequer, which book is kept (habetur) not of record but for evidence, viz. in Buckingham under the heading of Honour of the Earl Marshal and Fees of the Marshal, thus :—Town of Eton. A moiety of Thomas de Lacell', and the other moiety of Ralph de Hodeng, which they hold in chief of the king, and defend by ward at the castle of Wyndeshore with other their manors, which they hold of the king in chief of a moiety of the barony of Wyndeshore, viz. for 40 days, 16*s.* 8*d.*

Nothing else has been found at present in the said rolls and memoranda touching the manor of Burnham, or the lands &c. in Eton, mentioned in the said writ.

By the roll of Memoranda of 6 Edward III, Easter fines, and Book of Fees under Buckingham.

Writ to Thomas de Foxle, constable of the castle of Wyndesore, directing him to search the rolls of fees of the said castle, to see if the lands &c. in Eyton late of the said John are parcel of the manor of Burnham or not; and if the said manor is gross by itself and the said lands &c. gross by themselves, then by what tenures they are held.
18 November, 23 Edward III.

Certificate of the constable, Friday the morrow of St. Katherine, 24 Edward III.

From the lord of Huntercombe, for $3\frac{1}{2}$ knights' fees, 75s. yearly to the castle of Wyndes[ore], viz. for 40 days 8s. 4d.

There are no other memoranda or evidences in the constable's possession touching the said lands &c. in Eytone, but it is commonly said that they belong to the manor of Burnham.

Memorandum of subsequent proceedings in the Chancery and Coram Rege, beginning on Saturday after the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 25 Edward III. The king claims the custody of the tenements in Eyton as being gross by themselves, while Christiana claims them as parcel of the manor of Burnham. Nicholas de Aumberden, who married Christiana during the trial, is joined with her in the latter part of the proceedings. Eventually it was decided that the tenements were parcel of the manor of Burnham and Nicholas and Christiana had a writ for restitution thereof with the issues during the time the tenements were in the king's hand.

Writ of certiorari de feodis, &c. to John Lovekyn, mayor of London, 16 March, 23 Edward III.

LONDON. Inq. taken at London, 22 April, 23 Edward III.

He had no knights' fees within the liberty of the city.

Dounegate Ward. The advowson of the church of Allhallows the Great.

Writ of certiorari, referring to the escheator's former inquisition, by which it was found that in the manor of Stoke Arches, late of the said Hugh, there was a free chace, called the chace of Cors, the profit whereof was nothing beyond the expenses of the foresters and the maintenance of the deer. The escheator is to inquire how the moneys for those purposes arise and who receives them. 26 August, 24 Edward III.

GLOUCESTER. Inq. taken at Gloucester, Monday after St. Denis, 24 Edward III.

There is no free chace called Cors in the manor of Stoke Archers ; but at Cors the abbot of Westminster has a wood and soil ; the abbot of St. Augustine's, Bristol, has the same ; the prior of Durhurst the same ; the lady of Hasfeld the same ; John Gerunvyle the same ; and the abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, has the same pertaining to his manor of Mayesmore, which is called 'Weounbrugg' in Cors. Also, the said abbot of Gloucester has a manor called 'Hardepirie,' near Cors. In which manors of Mayesmor and Hardepirie the abbots of Gloucester have time out of mind had free warren. These parcels, in the hands of the aforesaid abbot, prior, lady and John Gerunvyle, are named Cors, so that the whole of Cors is in their hands, and thus neither Hugh le Despenser nor his ancestors, nor any other lord of the manor of Stoke Archers, had ever any soil or wood in Cors ; but, by usurpation and encroachment (purprisam) in respect of beasts of the chace of Malverne, which was in the hands of the said Hugh and his ancestors, the said beasts were accustomed to come and go at Cors and there to feed and be sustained ; whereby the said Hugh and his ancestors and the lords of Stoke Archers in continuance, without any title of right, by ownership (dominium) and encroachment in Cors ordained and constituted four foresters there in Cors, of whom one, the master of the foresters, received 4*d.* a day by the hands of the reeve of the manor of Teukesburi, and each of the other three received 40*s.* yearly by the hands of the same reeve at the manor of Teukesburi. So neither the said Hugh nor his ancestors nor any other lord of Stoke Archers ever had any profits arising from the said Cors, except by the usurpation and extortion newly committed ; but, through the oppression (grave dominium) of the said Hugh le Despenser, lately deceased, there were attachments and amercements for damages in the soil and wood of the said abbots, prior, lady and John Gerunvyl, made by the said foresters, which the said Hugh unjustly and without title took to his own use. Before the time and usurpation of the said Hugh all the said abbots, prior, lady and John Gerunvyle peacefully had and received the profits arising from their wood and soil, as of their right, and still take them.

440. ELIZABETH, DAUGHTER AND HEIR OF JOAN, LATE THE WIFE OF JOHN DE WYNECOTE.

Writ after the death of the said Elizabeth, who died a minor in the king's wardship, 12 October, 23 Edward III.

WORCESTER. Inq. taken at Worcester, Saturday after St. Leonard, 23 Edward III.

Quenhull. The manor is in the king's hand by reason of the death of the said Joan and the minority of the said Elizabeth. It is held of the king in chief by service of rendering to him [yearly] at the exchequer a hound (unum canem de moeta).

The said Elizabeth, heir of the said John and Joan, died on Monday before the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Margaret, aged eight years, and Jueta, aged five years and more, daughters of the said Joan, are her heirs by reason of a fine levied in the king's court. One John Geffrey, chaplain, was seised of the manor of Quenhull and enfeofed the said John and Joan and the heirs of their bodies, with remainder to the right heirs of the said Joan. The said manor should therefore remain to the aforesaid Margaret and Jueta, as the said John and Joan and Elizabeth died without heir of themselves.

Writ after the death of the said Elizabeth, daughter and heir of John de Wynecote, who held by knight's service of the heir of Lawrence de Hastyngges, late earl of Pembroke, a minor in the king's wardship, 20 August, 23 Edward III.

WARWICK. Inq. taken at Aston Cantelo, 18 September, 23 Edward III.

John de Wynecote, her father, held no lands &c. of the said heir, as the writ alleges. He died six years ago, holding of the said earl two parts of a messuage, of a dovecot, of a carucate of land, and of 100s. rent in Wilmecote by service of an eighth part of a knight's fee. Upon the said John's death the said earl took the said tenements into his own hand by reason of the minority at that time of the four daughters and heirs of the said John. Afterwards a certain John de Hampton, knight, bought of the said earl the wardship and marriage of the said four daughters and the custody of the lands &c. aforesaid. Afterwards the said earl, who held of the king in chief, died, and his heir is a minor in the king's wardship. Afterwards Eleanor, late the wife of the said John de Hampton, held in dower the remaining third part of the said lands &c. of the said four daughters and heirs, and died on 10 June last; whereupon the said third part was taken into the king's hand because of the minority of the said Elizabeth, her three sisters having died in the pestilence before the said Eleanor's death, as a wardship within a wardship by reason of the lands of the said earl's heir being in the king's wardship. Afterwards the said Elizabeth died on 1 August last, a minor in the king's wardship, by whose death the aforesaid two parts of the said lands &c. were taken into the king's hand, out of the wardship (extra custodiam) of the said John de Hampton and his executors, and so the aforesaid tenements are still in the king's hand.

No other lands &c. in the county of her inheritance are in the king's hand.

Date of death 1 August. William de Bunynnton, her kinsman, aged 60 years and more at Whitsunday last, is her heir.

SOUTHAMPTON; ISLE OF WIGHT. Inq. taken at Neuport, Saturday after St. Faith, 25 Edward III.

He held nothing of the king.

Writ in the same terms as that of 20 September, 8 December, 25 Edward III.

SOUTHAMPTON; ISLE OF WIGHT. Inq. taken at Neuport, Saturday after the Epiphany, 25 Edward III.

La Hale. A messuage and a carucate of land held of Robert de Godyton by knight's service.

He died on 4 April, 23 Edward III. Robert his son, aged two years and more, is his heir.

Commission of plenius certiorari to Theobald de Gorges, William de Rynegebourn and John de Kyngesdon on the suit of Adam Brabasoun and Margery his wife, sister and heir of Robert de Godyton, who claimed that the custody of the messuage and land aforesaid ought to belong to them by reason of the minority of the deceased's heir, and prayed the king to remove his hand therefrom. The king directed the sheriff of Southampton to warn Richard le Kerver of Winchester, who holds the said custody by the king's commission, to be before the king in chancery on the quinzaine of Easter last with the letters patent touching the said custody if any, to show cause why the said letters should not be revoked and the king's hand removed from the said messuage and land. On which day the said Richard and Adam came in person and the said Margery by John de Codyngton the younger, her attorney; and Richard le Kerver said that the manor of Hale was formerly half a knight's fee and that William de Godyton held the whole of it of the manor of Gatecomb, which is held of the king in chief, by service of a moiety of a knight's fee. After the said William's death the said manor of Hale was equally divided between two heirs. Richard atte Hale on the day of his death held by knight's service the aforesaid messuage and land as a moiety of the said manor of Hale of the heir of John de Gatecombe, a minor in the king's wardship, as of the manor of Gatecomb, so that the wardship of the heir of Richard atte Hale and the custody of the messuage and land aforesaid ought to belong to the king. The said Adam and Margery say that Richard atte Hale and his ancestors, tenants of the said messuage and land, held the same immediately of William de Godyton and other ancestors of the said Margery, who held them in service of the said manor of Gatecomb time out of mind by knight's service; denying (absque eo quod) that the said William held the whole of the manor of Hale in demesne or that a partition or division was afterwards made thereof among the heirs, as has been alleged by Richard le Kerver. The commissioners are to enquire into the foregoing, in presence of the feodaries of the island and of the keeper of the king's lands &c. there, or of his attorney, and by distraint, amercements &c. to compel the attendance of those whom they see fit to summon on a fixed day to Hale, and, having heard all parties, to send the inquisition into the chancery before the quinzaine of Holy Trinity next; 27 April, 26 Edward III.

SOUTHAMPTON; ISLE OF WIGHT. Inq. taken at La Hale before the aforesaid commissioners, Thursday, 31 May, 26 Edward III.

La Hale. The manor was lately half a knight's fee and William de Godyton never held the whole of it of the manor of Gatecombe in demesne, but he held a moiety of the said manor of Hale in demesne and the other half in service of the said manor of Gatecombe by service of a moiety of a knight's fee. The said manor of Hale, after the said William's death, was not divided between two heirs, as alleged by Richard le Kerver. Richard atte Hale did not hold the aforesaid messuage and land of the heir of John de Gatecombe, a minor, but of Robert de Godyton, by service of a quarter of a knight's fee, as of a mesne between himself and the lord of Gatecombe. The jurors being asked, on behalf of the king, whether the said manor of la Hale had at any time of old been entire and afterwards divided between two sisters, heirs thereof, say that at present they know not.

Commission to Theobald de Gorges, Henry de Greystok and John de Kyngesdon to inquire whether the manors called la Northale and Southale in the Isle of Wight were at any time one whole manor or not; and, if so, when, and if that manor was afterwards divided to enquire as to the partition &c.; 24 April, 27 Edward III. By letter of the Griffon.

SOUTHAMPTON; ISLE OF WIGHT. Inq. taken at Northale before Henry de Greystok and John de Kyngesdon, Monday in Whitsun week, 27 Edward III.

The manors called la Northale and Southale in the Isle of Wight were one whole manor, called Hale, in the time of King Henry III, and one William atte Hale then held it of the lord of the manor of Gatecombe by service of a moiety of a knight's fee and by doing suit at his court of Gatecombe. After his death the said manor of Hale was partitioned between Joan and Annora, daughters and heirs of the said William, so that the manor now called Southale was allotted to Joan and the other manor now called Northale to Annora in the time of the said King Henry. From Joan the right of her pourparty descended to William de Godynton, her son and heir, and from him to Robert his son and heir, and from him to Robert his son and heir, from whom it descended to Margery his sister and heir, whom Adam Brabason married, and he now holds the said manor of Southale. From Annora the right of her pourparty descended to John Michel, her son and heir, and from him to Henry atte Hale, his son and heir, and from him to Richard atte Hale, his son and heir, and from him to his son and heir Robert, who is a minor three years of age. So the said Adam and Margery now hold the manor of Southale, as of the right of the said Margery, and the said manor of Northale by pretext of a writ of the king to the escheator of the island to deliver seisin thereof to them.

Writ of scire facias to the sheriff of Southampton to warn the aforesaid Adam and Margery to be in the king's chancery on the quinzaine of Holy Trinity next, wherever it may then be, to show cause why the said manor of Northale should not be taken into the king's hand by way of custody and why they should not account to the king for the issues received since the death of Richard atte Hale, as it appears from the last two inquisitions that Northale and Southale are held by knight's service of the manor of Gatcombe, which is in the king's hand; 18 May, 27 Edward III.

Endorsed by the sheriff that he had returned the writ to John de Kyngesdon, bailiff of the liberty of the Isle of Wight, who answered that he warned the said Adam and Margery as above by Richard Tyrel and Henry Wyneman.

Endorsed in another hand: The said sheriff, on account of his insufficient return, was fined 10s. and another writ of scire facias issued, returnable on the octave of St. John the Baptist.

Writ of scire facias to the sheriff of Southampton, 10 June, 27 Edward III.

Endorsed by the sheriff that he had returned the writ to the above-named bailiff, who had warned the said Adam and Margery accordingly.

Endorsed in another hand: On which day the whole matter was sent before the king, as appears in the annexed record.

Record of plea.

On which day the said Adam and Margery come and say that Richard atte Hale, father of the minor Robert, and his ancestors held the tenements called the manor of Northale of Robert de Godyton, brother of Margery, whose heir Margery is, and their ancestors as of their manor of Suthale, by homage &c., and the said Robert and his ancestors held Northale of John de Gatecombe, whose son and heir is now a minor in the king's wardship, by homage, as a mesne (medius) between the lords of the manor of Gatecombe and the tenants of Northale, denying that the manors called Northale and Suthale were sometime held as a whole in demesne &c. as above. Henry de Greystok, for the king, says that the manors of Northale and Suthale were one whole manor and in the possession of one and the same person, who then held it of the lord of the manor of Gatecombe by knight's service and afterwards it was partitioned between two co-heirs, so that the manor of Northale was allotted to one and the manor of Suthale to the other. Both parties put themselves upon the country, and thereupon a day was given to the said Adam and Margery before the king on the morrow of St. Martin, wherever the king might then be. The sheriff is directed to have a jury of 24 ready. (Undated.)

Walter le Kayn, aged 50 years, agrees and says that on Sunday after the said John's birth his staff and wallet were blessed in the same church of St. Bartholomew, and he started for (arripuit versus) Santiago on the Monday following; and he remembers it well because on the same Sunday he enfeoffed John atte Nassh, chaplain, for life, of all his lands &c. in Arundell by his charter dated Sunday after St. Ambrose, 4 Edward III.

Godfrey le Fauconer, aged 60 years, agrees and says that William his son was made a monk at 'la Sele' on Whitsunday following the said John's birth, 4 Edward III; and he remembers it well, because on the eve of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist then next following the said William went out of the said house of 'la Sele' against the will of the prior and convent, and, in going towards his friends or elsewhere on the hill of Changebury, he was killed, as appears by an inquisition taken on his death before Gervase de Leem, then one of the coroners of Sussex.

Andrew Bourde, aged 40 years, agrees and says that William his brother was indicted before Gervase de Leem, then a coroner of Surrey, for the death of John Lambekyn, on 4 May, 4 Edward III, and was taken to the gaol of Guldeford and detained there until the next delivery of the said gaol on 14 October following, when he was acquitted by a jury; and he remembers it well because his said brother died on 20 October after the delivery of the said gaol, and the day of his death is enrolled in the missal of the church of St. Nicholas, Guldeford.

Thomas Josep, aged 50 years, agrees and says that Ralph his brother was presented to the church of Sullyngton by John de Covert and the presentation came to him in the aforesaid church of St. Bartholomew on Tuesday, 7 April, 4 Edward III, the day on which the said John was baptised; and he remembers it well by the date of the said presentation, which still remains in the possession of the said Ralph.

William Michell, aged 60 years, agrees and says that Robert, brother of Isabel his wife, was elected prior of Heryngham on Wednesday after the Nativity . . . on the same day he was bound by a bond (litteram obligatoriam) to the prior and convent of . . . in 40*l.* . . . as appears by the said bond in the possession of the present prior, dated . . . (the rest torn away).

CORRIGENDUM.

688. ROBERT BOURGCHIER.

The date of the missing writ of diem clausit extremum on Robert Bourgchier (No. 239) is given as 18 May on the authority of the Fine Roll. The entry on the Fine Roll follows immediately after an entry dated 18 May and is itself dated ut supra. The entry immediately following is a writ of diem clausit extremum, also dated ut supra, on John Huntman, the original of which is extant (see No. 365) and dated 18 August. From internal evidence this appears to be about the right date for the writ on Robert Bourgchier and on closer examination of the Fine Roll the writ of 18 May is found to be misplaced among a number of writs of August. The reading 18 May should therefore be probably 18 August.
